Exercise 4: Finding a book

1. Choose a topic that you’re interested in:

________________________________________________________________________

2. Using the OCCC Library catalog, find a book or video with information on your topic.

a. In what area of the Library will you find that item?
   1. AV area
   2. Reference
   3. 2nd floor
   4. Circ-Desk
   5. Online

b. What is its call number (specific shelf location)? ________________________________
   Example: PN 4784 .T4 S53 2005

c. Most of the time when you do college research, you will need to write down information about your source for a bibliography. For your book or video, list those details:

   Author: ________________________________

   Title: ________________________________________________________________

   Place of publication: ______________________

   Publisher: ______________________________

   Year of copyright: _______

3. OPTIONAL. Go find this item on the shelves using the call number you found in the catalog. If your item is located online, use the link to retrieve and then look at it.

   What audience do you think this book (or video) was written for? (college students, physicians, recreational readers, people who have health issues)

   _______________________________________________________________________

7-29-2013